

PLANTING A LIVING LEGACY

Building a World Class Botanical Garden in Maine

Presenter: Sarah Giles MG, 2004

Date: May 22, 2007

Location: UNHCE Family, Home & Garden Education Center, Manchester NH

Time: 6:00-7:30 PM

Fee: $10.00

Officially opening in June, a World Class Botanical Garden in Maine has been evolving since 1991.

Come hear the amazing story of how it first began; the necessary steps that have been taken since the purchase of the land, including the creation of a Master Plan; and plans for the future. Take a tour through the Gardens via a power point presentation which will tempt you to take the trip to Boothbay to see the Gardens with your own eyes! <http://www.maine gardens.org/>

PAINT ECONASIA

Presenter: Jane Kavaras ,MG 2004

Date: June 9, 2007

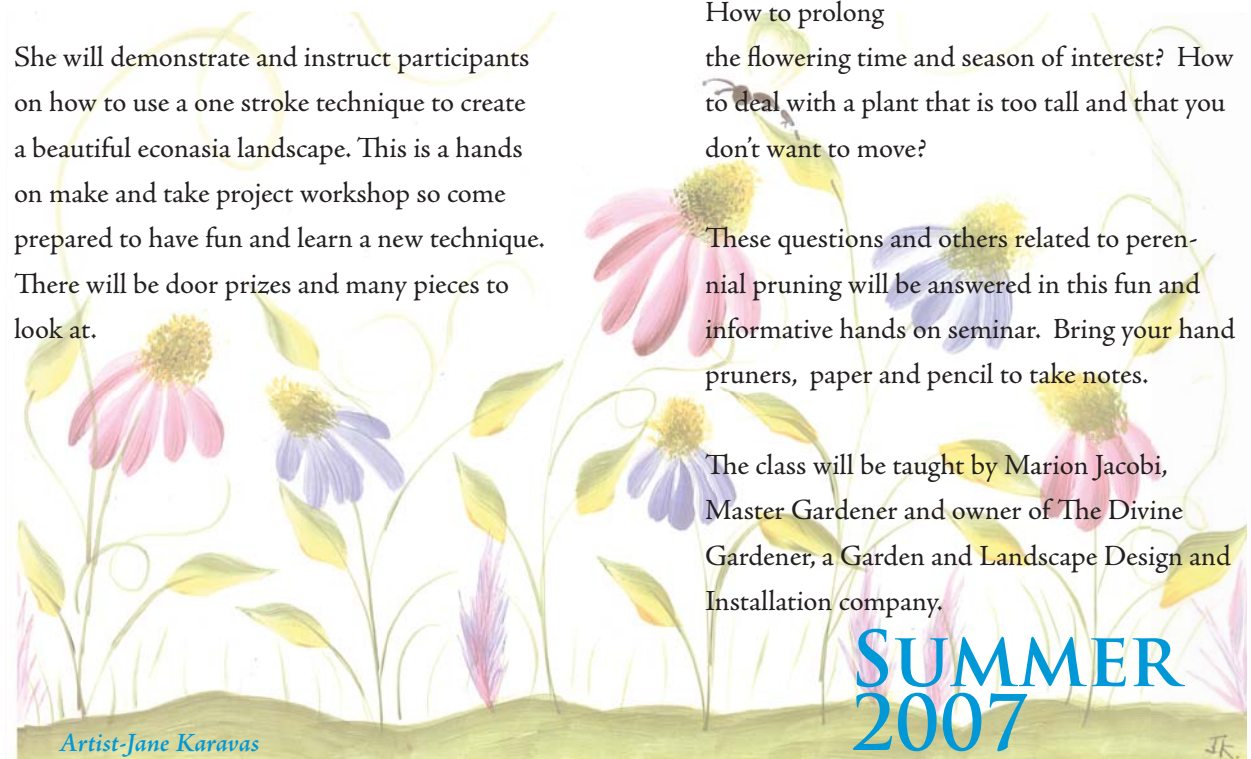

Location: UNHCE Family, Home & Garden Education Center, Manchester NH

Time: 9:00-11:00 AM

Fee: $10.00 (plus supplies)

Jane Kavaras a Master Gardener (2004) has been toll painting on different mediums for many years and would like to share her talent with you.

She will demonstrate and instruct participants on how to use a one stroke technique to create a beautiful econasia landscape. This is a hands on make and take project workshop so come prepared to have fun and learn a new technique. There will be door prizes and many pieces to look at.

PERENNIAL PRUNING

Presenter: Marion Jacobi, MG 2003

Date: June 13, 2007

Location: Hooksett, NH

Time: 6:00-8:00 PM

Fee: $10.00

Have you ever wondered how to take care of those perennials you planted in your garden?

How to prolong the flowering time and season of interest? How to deal with a plant that is too tall and that you don't want to move?

These questions and others related to perennial pruning will be answered in this fun and informative hands on seminar. Bring your hand pruners, paper and pencil to take notes.

The class will be taught by Marion Jacobi, Master Gardener and owner of The Divine Gardener, a Garden and Landscape Design and Installation company.

SUMMER
2007

REGISTER EARLY

Group size is limited for all workshops

We encourage early registration because space is limited. There is a registration fee associated with each workshop. These fees are to help defray any expenses incurred.

For more information on any of the listed workshops or to register, please contact Pamela Doherty at the Family, Home & Garden Education Center, 629-9494, ext. 120 or e-mail her at Pam.Doherty@UNH.EDU.

Directions to the workshop(s) will be mailed with a workshop confirmation once payment has been received. If you need to cancel after registering, please call Pam promptly so we can allocate your space to a person on the waiting list.

- The Family, Home & Garden Education Center at UNH Cooperative Extension
- in Manchester provides practical solutions to everyday questions for the citizens of New Hampshire . It is staffed by professionals and intensively trained volunteers who are available to answer your questions about gardens, lawns and landscapes, household food safety and food preservation, water quality, integrated pest management, tree planting and care, backyard livestock and more. We offer written information, programs or referrals on family finances, nutrition, parenting and child development, and 4-H youth development.
- The center is staffed 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Monday through Friday & Wednesday evenings from 5:00pm-7:30pm.
- Toll free number: 1-877-EXT-GROW (1-877-398-4769)

The University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension is an equal opportunity educator and employer.4/07 "For persons with disabilities requiring special accommodations, please contact Pam Doherty at 603-629-9494 ext. 120 , within 3 days of the event so proper consideration may be given to the request."

www.extension.unh.edu
(603) 629-9494
Manchester, NH 03101
200 Bedford Street

UNHCE-FHGEC

FAMILY, HOME
& GARDEN
EDUCATION CENTER

SUMMER 2007 WORKSHOP SERIES

UNIVERSITY of NEW HAMPSHIRE
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION